

PADEREWSKI

HUNTINGTON PIANO.

A few years ago, when this eminent artist was in this country, he presented a piano to the "Paderewski Singing Society" of Chicago. He had ample opportunity to try the various makes of pianos, and finally selected the "Huntington" on account of its beautiful tone quality and superb action. The Huntington is not the most expensive piano by any means, but it is the BEST medium-priced instrument on the market! We have sold thousands in and about Washington.

PRICE, $300.

A carload of "Huntingtons"—16 pianos—will arrive for us Monday morning; they are all beautiful 1936 models, and to accommodate them we must sacrifice a few of the splendid bargains in slightly used pianos now on our floors.

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

MRS. ROOSEVELT RETURNS TO THE CAPITAL.

Features of Her Stay in Atlanta—Recent Hospitalities—Personal Notes.

Mrs. Roosevelt was met at the train yesterday in Atlanta by a delegation of ladies, headed by Mrs. Terrell, wife of Gov. Terrell, and Mrs. Clark Howell, who after the brief introductions at the station, escorted her to the governor's mansion. There a hundred or more of Atlanta's leading society ladies had gathered to extend their welcome.

The passing of the great parade in honor of the President was watched from the verandas of the mansion. Joel Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," was the guest specially invited to meet the President's wife at her request.

Mrs. Roosevelt's stay was cut short by the early departure of her train for Washington at noon. She spent the last half hour of her visit in a drive to Brookwood, a suburb, where the train was stopped for her. The drive took her along Peachtree street soon after the passing of the parade, and she was given the opportunity to see the elaborate decorations that had been made in honor of the President.

Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by John S. Elliott, commissioner of the Interior for Porto Rico, arrived in Washington at 11:30 o'clock today. They were met at the station here at 6:42 this morning, but their train was delayed by the heavy traffic on the Southern railway, arriving here several hours late. Mrs. Roosevelt was in excellent health and spirits and had enjoyed the trip greatly.
